Don't add the heat of a kitchen fire to the sufficient discomfort of hot weather.

Use a New Perfection Wick Blue Flame Oil Cook-Stove and cook in comfort.

With a "New Perfection" Oil Stove the preparation of daily meals, or the big weekly "baking," is done without raising the temperature perceptibly above that of any other room in the house. Another great advantage of the

ESCAPED FROM JAIL.

Janus Williamson, alleged wife murderer and bigamist, escaped from the temporary jail in Petersburg yesterday morning.

Two weeks ago Williamson's young wife was taken ill and died in her Petersburg home, and an investigation followed.

A neighbor who had lent meal to the Williamson family and had a portion of it returned noticed that all of her chickens were poisoned after feeding on the meal. Not the slightest suspicion attached to the young husband, who, apparently grief-stricken, took his three-week-old baby to an aunt in Richmond and then went to North Carolina, leaving his address in case he might be wanted.

He was later arrested, but appeared absolutely unconcerned. It has since developed that Williamson had a wife in Texas. He is said to have left the impression in Texas that he was dead. His first wife believed this.

Yesterday morning Williamson was seen in his cell at 1 o'clock. At 2 o'clock the guard noticed that he was not in the cell. Investigation showed that he had torn up the plank in the floor and gone through what had formerly been a part of an elevator shaft. The building which is used for a temporary jail was formerly a warehouse. Making his way to the roof of an adjoining house, the alleged murderer succeeded in reaching the ground.

DANCE OF DEATH.

Passengers on the Hamburg-American steamship Pennsylvania, on landing in New York yesterday, told of a dance of death. On Wednesday the steamer had a big celebration of what was likely to be the last night on board. To the music of a concertina and a cornet, furnished by a volunteer orchestra of two, Ignatz Barchewitz, a young Pole, in his heavy boots and thick woolen vest, undertook to dance down the nimblest partner he could find. But he met his match in a little young Russian girl. For two hours they heeled and toed to each other, while their fellow travelers clapped hands and cheered. The Pole's face grew purple and the sweat rolled off him in streams. Still he kept it up. Suddenly he fell unconscious. He was dead before they could carry him to his bunk. The ship's surgeon said he had been killed by heart disease, superinduced by exhaustion. There was no more dancing that night, and on Thursday his body was buried at sea.

CRUSHED BY ALLIGATOR.

Princess Silva, an alligator trainer, said to be an American, was attacked by an alligator yesterday in the presence of a big crowd at Luna Park, Paris, while putting the vicious animal which recently had been brought out from Florida, through a series of exercises. The alligator seized and crushed the woman's right arm in its jaws. With rare presence of mind she drew a revolver with her left hand and emptied the fire shots into the alligator's head. It let go its hold and Princess Silva was removed from the cage. The woman's injuries are not fatal.

Origin of the Oath.
Among the different nations the mode of administering the oath varies. Formerly the custom was in this country by kissing the Bible. At the present time the more general manner is by raising the right hand.
Among the many things for which the world is indebted to the Jew is the mode of administering the oath. It dates back to the days of Abram, the patriarch, who when offered by the king of Sodom to take the goods to himself made answer, "I have lifted up mine hand unto the Lord, the most high God, the possessor of heaven and earth, that I will not take from a thread even to a shoe latchet and that I will not take anything that is thine lest thou shouldst say, I have made Abram rich."—Detroit News-Tribune.

Sardou's Opinion of Women.
I have, said Sardou, the highest opinion of the fair sex. I consider women superior to men in almost everything. They possess the intuitive faculty to an extraordinary degree and may almost always be trusted to do the right thing in the right place. They are full of noble instincts, and though heavily handicapped by fate, come well out of every ordeal. You have but to turn to history to realize the truth of what I say.

At the Market.
Mrs. C.—Good morning, Bridget. I hope your master and mistress have not forgotten that they're coming to dine with me tonight. Cook—Indade and they're not. They've ordered a good, hearty meal at home at 6 o'clock.—Harper's Bazar.

Overjoyed.
"How did papa act when you asked him for my hand?"
"I could see that he was trying to control himself, but he presented all the symptoms of a man who has drawn a straight flush."—Houston Post.

Short Dogs Bite Low.
Passerby—Here, boy, your dog has bitten me on the ankle. Dog Owner—Well, that's as high as he could reach. You wouldn't expect a little pup like him to bite yer neck, would yer?—London Tit-Bits.

Who hangs himself in the chimney should not complain of smoke.—German Proverb.

To City Tax Payers—Notice

Collector's Office, June 14, 1909.
Notice is hereby given that the tax bills for 1909 are now in the hands of the Collector. The attention of parties interested is respectfully called to the following extract from the revenue bill of that year:
"Upon all bills paid in full by the 1st day of July, 1909, the Collector of Taxes shall allow a discount of six percent, and on all bills paid by the 1st day of September, 1909, he shall allow a discount of four percent, and on all bills not paid on the 1st day of December, 1909, there shall be assessed and collected a penalty of five percent upon the amount of said bill, and on all bills remaining unpaid on the 1st day of June, 1910, damages at the rate of six percent per annum shall be paid."

Taxpayers would do well to call and pay at once in order to avoid the rush and crowd usually present on the last days in which the discount is allowed.

Bring a list to make sure you get bills for all your property, as the collector will not be responsible for allowing the discount after the time fixed by law.
